Homestay accommodation

“They looked after me very well and I felt like a member of the family.” Laura, Spain

Highest quality hosts

Our homestay hosts are selected according to British Council criteria, for their friendliness, warm hospitality and their genuine interest in hosting our students. Some are within walking distance and most a short bus ride away in Weymouth and Portland. You'll be the only guest of your language in the home, usually in a twin room. On study days, hot and cold lunches are provided at the college canteen and you'll have all other meals with your hosts where you'll have the opportunity of cultural immersion, practising your English with supportive British families.

- ✓ Friendly hosts
- ✓ One person of a language
- ✓ Regularly inspected
- ✓ Special diets catered for
- ✓ Single room available
- ✓ Special requests

Excellent homestay

WEC hosts consistently receive great feedback from our students.

The English way of life

Staying in an English home will develop your intercultural and language skills.

Giorgia, Italy

We have had two weeks with two English parents. They have been lovely, patient, they took us as daughters and I'll miss them so much.”

Terms and conditions

1. Enrolment

To book a course please fill out the booking form or use the online form on our website. We will then reserve a place and send you details of how to pay the deposit of £150. You should pay the deposit within seven days in order to secure your place. The rest of the course fees should be paid three weeks before your course starts.

2. Cancellation by the student

You have a legal right under the Consumer Contract (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 to cancel the contract within 14 days ("Cancellation Period") without giving any reason. The Cancellation Period will expire 14 days from the date of our booking confirmation. To cancel you must inform us by a clear statement. You may use the cancellation form at <http://www.weymouthenglishcentre.com/cancellation> or send it by email or post. The cancellation is only valid when it has been acknowledged by the School.

We will not start providing services to you during the Cancellation Period unless you expressly request us to do so.

If you cancel within 14 days, we will refund the fees you have paid within 14 days after we receive your cancellation. However, if you have expressly requested that we start providing services within the Cancellation Period then we will be entitled to charge you a reasonable sum for those services and we will deduct this sum from any refund payable to you.

If you cancel after the Cancellation Period, the School is entitled to compensation for the work already done and expenses incurred. In calculating such compensation, expenses and work saved is taken into account.

Cancellation fees are as follows:

- more than 30 days before your course is due to start: £75
- between 30 and 15 days before your course is due to start: 30% of the total fees
- between 14 and 7 days before your course is due to start: 45% of the total fees
- less than 7 days before your course is due to start: 75% of the total fees

If your visa is refused, we will refund the money you have paid us minus an administrative fee of £60 provided we receive the original letter of refusal from the British Embassy at least one week before your course is due to start.

3. Medical information

Any medical, physical or mental conditions which might affect the student's stay in Weymouth must be disclosed in full at the time of booking. If any relevant information is not fully disclosed, the School has the right to send the student home at the student's expense.

4. Replacement person

Up to the date of the start of the course the student may find a replacement student to take over his or her rights and responsibilities. The School has the right to reject such a replacement person if he or she does not comply with the requirements of the course or his or her participation would be in contravention of any appropriate laws or regulations.

If a replacement student takes the place of the original student, both the replacement student and the original student are jointly responsible for ensuring that the course fees are paid together with any additional costs incurred through the replacement of the original student.

5. The course offer

The course is provided according to the description contained in the brochure for the relevant course town and course type. Any lessons or activities which are included in the package but not used by the student cannot be refunded unless the School incurs lower costs as a result of the non-participation of the student.

6. Notification of claims

If any part of the course is not provided as described in the brochure, the student should notify a course leader or our office in order that the matter can be rectified immediately. If the student fails to notify the school of any such complaint, he or she is not entitled to any subsequent compensation.

7. Responsibility of the student

The School has rules which are designed to ensure the safety of the students at all times. The student must follow the rules of the School. If he/ she fails to do so a warning will be given. If the student continues to fail to obey the rules of the School, then the School has the right to send the student home at the student's expense. In this case the School will make reasonable efforts to contact the student's parents or legal guardians to inform them accordingly. It is the responsibility of the student's parents to supply full contact details in advance of the course.

Student Behaviour:

If a student behaves in a disruptive manner, the School reserves the right to send the student home by air at the student's or the parents' expense. If a student engages in any criminal activity, he/she will immediately be sent home by air at the student's or the parents' expense, even if criminal proceedings have not been instigated by the police. All students are expected to abide by the rules laid down by the School and by the families. All students should be home by 22:00.

Alcohol:

There are specific laws relating to drinking alcohol and visiting pubs in Britain. No-one under 18 years may buy or consume alcoholic drinks. Young people aged 15-17 can only go into pubs if accompanied by a responsible adult. The School rules regarding pubs reflect these legal requirements.

Drugs and Illegal Substances:

Any student found in possession of drugs or any illegal substances will be sent home by air immediately at the expense of the parents or the student.

8. Liability of the school

Weymouth English Centre, its staff, representatives and host families will not be liable for any loss, damage, illness or injury to persons or property, however caused, except where such liability is imposed under UK law. It is the student's responsibility to take out insurance to cover all such risks. We also advise students to take out insurance to cover any costs of cancellation or curtailment of the course. Weymouth English Centre will not be held liable in any way if any service contracted to be supplied by them becomes impossible to supply as a result of any industrial or other dispute which is outside the School's control.

9. Insurance

Students must arrange or already have medical insurance before the start of the course and must bring the insurance certificate with them. The School also offers comprehensive student insurance.

See you in Weymouth in summer 2025!
